

For more than 35 years, MASTERPIECE has enthralled audiences with the works of the finest classic and contemporary writers interpreted by the world's foremost actors. The new MASTERPIECE schedule breaks the year into three "seasons," each with its own host, graphics and fresh take on the series' famous theme music.

- In winter and spring, MASTERPIECE CLASSIC features signature period dramas.
- In summer, MASTERPIECE MYSTERY! presents the best British mysteries.
- In fall, MASTERPIECE CONTEMPORARY shows dramas set in modern times.

Emmy Award-winning actress Laura Linney is the new host of MASTERPIECE CLASSIC.

In winter/spring 2009, MASTERPIECE CLASSIC presents adaptations of Thomas Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles, Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights and Charles Dickens' Oliver Twist, Little Dorrit, The Old Curiosity Shop and David Copperfield.

Alan Cumming, one of show business' most eclectic talents, is the new host of MASTERPIECE MYSTERY!

In 2009, David Suchet will reprise his role as Hercule Poirot, Julia McKenzie will take over the iconic role of spinster sleuth Miss Marple and Kenneth Branagh will star as Kurt Wallander in a new series.

Matthew Goode (Brideshead Revisited) hosts the new MASTERPIECE CONTEMPORARY which will present outstanding British television drama with contemporary themes.

MASTERPIECE has been presented on PBS by WGBH Boston since 1971.
